O R D E R :-

In the letter read above, the Director, Archaeology and Museums has reported that the Indian Navy has informed that they have got land beyond the Buddhist Site at Thotlakonda, Visakhapatnam District, a Protected Monument of the Department of Archaeology and Museums, Government of Andhra Pradesh and the above said land is locked by the Department Buddhist Site on all sides and that there is no direct passage to enter into their site. Now Indian Navy have proposed to construct a 60' wide road and requested the Department of Archaeology and Museums to permit them to lay 60' wide road from Buddhist Site (Protected Monument of the Department of Archaeology and Museums) to enter into their land. The Indian Navy also proposed that required land (approx 03 acres) be transferred to them for construction and maintenance of 60' wide Road to be commonly used by both the parties i.e. Indian Navy and Department of Archaeology and Museums.

2. Government, after careful examination of the matter, hereby accord permission to the Director, Archaeology and Museums to transfer the requested land (03 acres) to Indian Navy Force to construct and maintain 60' wide Road through the Thotlakonda, Buddhist Site, Protected Monument of the Department of Archaeology and Museums, Andhra Pradesh to be used commonly by both the parties i.e. Indian Navy and the Department of Archaeology and Museums.

3. The Director, Archaeology and Museums is directed to take further necessary action.
